SOUTH BOSTON, May 9, 1870. SOUTH BOSTON, May 9, 1870.

H. R. STEVENS, E.S.:

Dear Sir-I have had considerable experience with the Vesetine. For dyspepsia, general debility and impure blood, the Vesetine is superior to anything which I have ever used. I commenced taking Vesetine about the middle of last winter, and, after using a few bottles, it entirely cured me of dyspepsia, and my blood never was in so good condition as at the present time. It will afford me pleasure to give any further particulars relative to what I know about this good medicine to any one who will call or address me at my residence, 386 Athens street.

Very respectfully,

NONROE PARKER,
